

Introduction

On Demand program required manual writing due to its custom design process to fulfil the customer process requirement. Manual writing required at least 2-4 weeks time after the software firm up confirmation agrees by the customer. Designing of the On demand software will always base on Autotrack team ability of programming. Some requirement may not be able to be fulfilled by the programmer and will be design base on Autotrack team design process.

Manual will be written only in English, additional language required additional effort for the writing after agree by the autotrack team. Autotrack team will try to use the most easy to understand way to deliver the and write out the manual to help customer to easily use the software.

Feature

Easy to be understand by User

Document format will be given to End user

Manual will be illustrated with picture for better understanding.

What Autotrack manual writing teams do on the Autotrack On-Demand Manual

Table of content is the first part of the autotrack on demand manual writing. We will list out in detail every individual page and function available in the Autotrack on demand. The manual content is written by program tester with the help of programmer to make sure no missing up of the topic. The second part of the manual writing is the detail manual writing, Autotrack team will use the most easy to understand way to write out the manual and deliver to our user. For easy to understand Autotrack on demand usage, Autotrack team will use as much as possible picture for illustration purposes. Manual normally will be written in 2 part, part 1 will be the complete administrator portion for Autotrack On Demand and part 2 will be the standard user with only operation right for the software. By the end of the manual writing, Autotrack team will deliver the manual in doc and pdf format for our customer in order for them to do any necessary amendment in the future.

