

Autotrack On Demand Attendance Marking

Introduction

With the advancement of technology and popularity of mobile device for individual. Today staff like to carry along with their own smart gadget during working hour. This is also introduced to the new corporate culture, Bring Your Own device (BYOD).

Common Problem on attendance marking

Company with Fix premises is it easy for collecting attendance data. The challenge come to the company whereby they would like to consign their worker for other corporate on running their task. Construction worker, maintenance worker, consignment worker, Cleaning services worker are some of the example of the company who required their staff to work at difference premises other than their own office.

What Autotrack Attendance Marking can do for you?

Autotrack On Demand Attendance marking design base on latest Microsoft SQL technology with C sharp programming. Store keeper will be allowing to summit their attendance information online via the mobile computer, mobile phone or desktop computer. Data will be transfer wirelessly and user can browse the request data without going back to the main office to mark their attendance. Once the worker reaches the assign premises, they will use their own mobile device and mark attendance, the attendance record will immediately post back to the hosting server.

What is inside Autotrack on Demand Attendance Marking?

Autotrack On Demand Attendance Marking comes in 2 separate software, Autotrack Attendance Management Studio and Autotrack Attendance terminal client (Mobile Apps).

Autotrack Attendance Marking Management Studio work?

Autotrack Attendance Marking Management Studio is running at the back-end PC to allow administrator user to manage their data. Autotrack Attendance Marking Management Studio have a function to link to user database via text file of employee master from customer existing HR program with employee master information and current information. This back-end program allow user to have a clear view on the existing employee master information, make a detail plan on employee process as well as man power allocation. **

Autotrack On Demand Attendance Marking

Autotrack attendance marking terminal client is a client program running on the mobile computer, android phone or Desktop. It depends on the type of devices you select. Minimum level of customization will be done once only base on customer preference for the first time. Once the user starts for routine the process, it should be able to reduce the lost on the wrong attendance marking and payroll calculation. The terminal use recommended come with 3G or higher connection. Human Resource manager will determine the process and classify the attendance base on the attendance records. Online update the receiving data directly after user scan the barcode or RFID with the terminal. Pre-requisite for the Autotrack attendance marking is every staff carry their own smart phone with 3G connection during working hour.

Features

- Windows and android base application
- User friendly design
- With Login user security
- Two-way communication (Mobilecomm Needed)
- Clear indicator and user action
- Support different brand of Mobile phone
- Adjustable to common screen size
- Using standard windows control
- 1D or 2D barcode capturing
- 3G enable
- Text file transfer integration
- Suitable hardware: Samsung, Huawei, Sony, XiaoMi

