

Autotrack Professional MobileComm

MobileComm
Professional

What is Mobilecomm?

Today more than ever, enterprise IT must be agile and respond to changing business demands. Applications and services that meet these requirements, and the ways they are consumed, are significantly different than in the past. Interfacing in between software in IT can be easy but complicate process especially for the process involve daily continuous operation. Autotrack Professional Mobilecomm know about the need and important of retrieving and passing data from and to customer ERP system. Mobilecomm design in order to transforms your daily costly, hard to manage and complicated data processing activity to seamlessly unattended process. With the connection between your mobile devices and your existing ERP solution, your tracking process from supplier can be ready in a split of second.

Key Benefits

- Reduce communication risk
- Increase tracking productivity
- Delivery instant data
- Rapidly respond to high demand operation
- Improve operational efficiency
- Improve business agility
- Lower total cost of ownership
- Totally eliminate human intervention

Module

- Asset/Item Master
- Customer/Debtor/Borrower Master List
- Supplier/Creditor/Returner List

