

AGen Price Tag Printing and Validation Software

Powering Retail Digitalization

Smart Pricing Starts Here

AGen Price Tag Printing and validation Software is a modern retail solution designed to simplify, standardize, and automate price tag printing and then allow backend to validate to prevent mistake. Built with efficiency and accuracy in mind, it helps retailers transform manual price labeling into a streamlined digital process.

Key Features

- ✓ Easy price tag design and printing
- ✓ Barcode & SKU support
- ✓ Flexible layouts for different tag sizes
- ✓ Fast updates for price changes and promotions
- ✓ User-friendly interface

Why Choose AGen?

Reduce manual errors

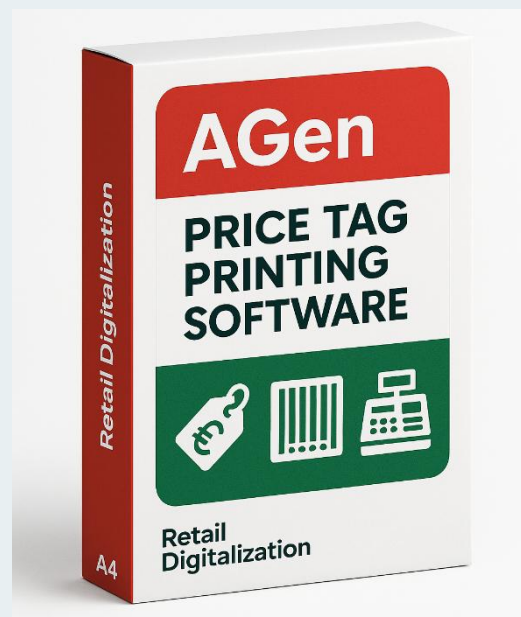

Save staff time and operational costs

Ensure consistent and clear shelf pricing

Support retail digital transformation

Offer after placement photo taking

Allow backend auditing via computer screen

Ideal For

Retail stores & supermarkets

Convenience stores

Pharmacies

Electronics retailers

Fashion & apparel shops

Hardware & DIY stores

Supported Data Sources

Excel file import

POS system textfile integration

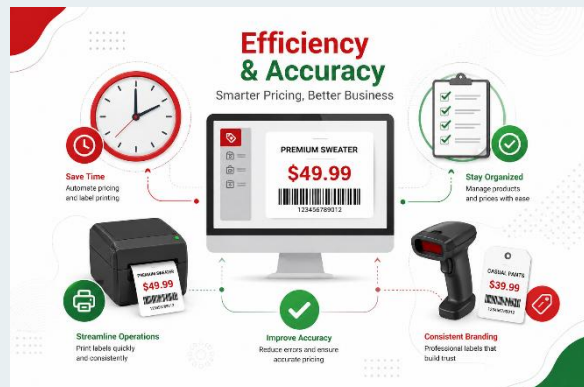

Manual price entry

WebAPI connectivity

Retail Digitalization Made Simple

AGen Price Tag Printing Software bridges digital product data with physical shelf labels—making your pricing smarter, faster, and more reliable.

AGen – Smart Labels. Smarter Retail.

System Requirements

Operating System - Windows 11 or Windows Server (Recommended)

Processor - Intel® Core™ i3 or above

Memory (RAM) - Minimum 4 GB and above

Storage - At least 10GB of free disk space

Display - Minimum resolution: 1280 × 800

Printer Support - Compatible with standard inkjet, laser, and barcode/label printers

Internet connection for updates and support (optional)