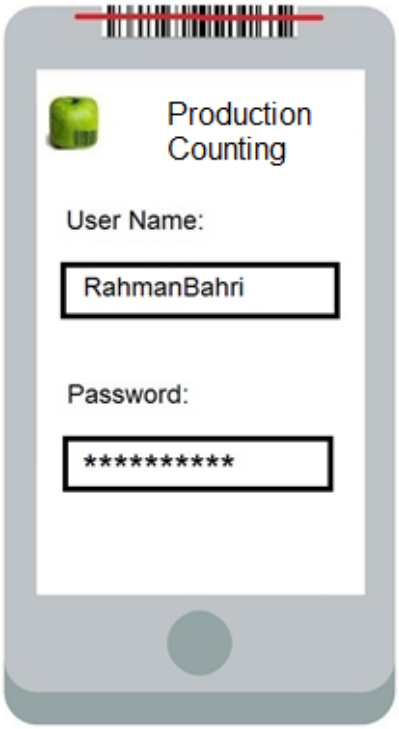
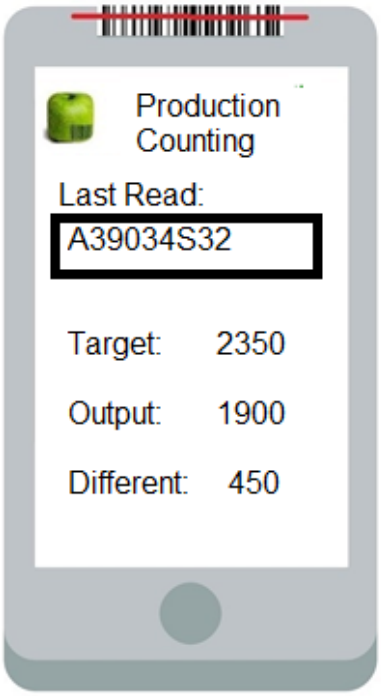
Autotrack On Demand Production Counting





Autotrack On Demand Production Counting and Label Reading solution now offers you the Barcode reading module by using the latest Microsoft SQL database on windows mobile devices or desktop PC. Autotrack on Demand Production counting allow user to retrieve information base on their existing Item master main system or manual input for the item master. Portable terminal simplify the data entry into system for bulky item, Automation scanner prefer in most of the production environment. Always online mode allows data to be counted base on their actual quantity.

What is inside Autotrack On Demand Production Counting?

Autotrack On Demand Production Counting comes in 2 separate software, Autotrack Production Counting Management Studio and Autotrack Production Counting terminal client.

How Autotrack Production Counting Management Studio work?

Autotrack Production Counting Management Studio is running at the back-end PC to allow administrator user to manage their data. Autotrack Production Counting Management Studio have a function to link to user database via text file of item master from customer exiting inventory program with existing system quantity and pricing information and current quantity. This back-end program allow user to have a clear view on the system quantity and actual quantity Information, stock and make a detail plan on production process as well as man power allocation.

ALC
An Auto-ID Company

www.alcaidc.com

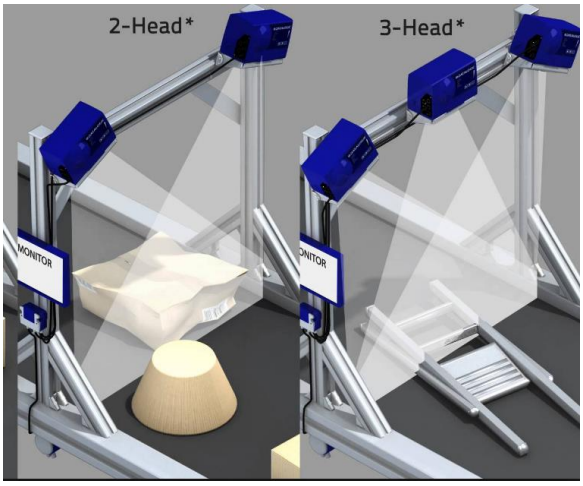
www.alcaidc.com

Autotrack On Demand Production Counting

Autotrack Production Counting terminal client

Autotrack Production Counting terminal client is a client program running on the mobile computer or desktop PC. It depends on the type of mobile computer or PC you select. Minimum level of customization will be done once only base on customer preference for the first time. Once the user starts routine the process, it should be able to reduce the lost on the wrong placement, counting, allocation and wrong type of the stock. The terminal use recommended come with WiFi and TCPIP connection.

The different between production counting Batch and production counting Online is based on the process to classify this process and the frequency of the action. Production manager will determine the process and classify the activity. Online update the receiving data directly after user press the save button on the terminal or once the data capture. Pre-requisite for the production counting to be done is customer need to have a proper barcoding system in their production line.



Features

Windows base application
User friendly design
With Login user security
Two way communication
Light weight program
Clear indicator and user action
Support different brand of Mobile computer or Desktop PC
Using standard windows control
1D or 2D barcode capturing
Batch, WiFi, Bluetooth, 2G, 3G, 4G or 5G
Text file transfer integration
Suitable hardware: Zebra, Honeywell, Datalogic, Denso, Argox

www.alcaidc.com